

Simply put, I love my XM Radio and the service it provides nationally as well as to the local community. I would like to have the traffic and weather features continue as I have found them to be a valuable alternative for getting this type of information as I need it. FCC, please don't accept the NAB's position challenging XM's local traffic and weather service. It is a service that I pay for and do not want to lose.